SOTUHFIELD, Mich. - Do you have an old prom dress hanging around in your closet? Now you can put that dress to good use by donating it to Hope Closet, a local chapter of DonateMyDress.org .

From March 13 through March 31, bring your gently-worn special occasion dress to Saks Fifth Avenue in Troy, and receive 20% off your new prom or party dress!

In addition, customers who donate their dresses are eligible to enter our Prom Princess contest, which includes a 5-Hour Limousine Service, courtesy of Metro Cars, an SFA Salon & Spa Manicure and Hairstyling, and a Trish McEvoy Makeup Application for the Prom Princess and her Mom.

Donated dresses will be given to Hope Closet, a local organization which is in its 7th year of providing Detroit area young ladies with the opportunity to select a dress for their prom, important party or special occasion.

For more information, contact Hope Closet at www.hopecloset.com or email at hopecloset@yahoo.com.

The Hope Closet boutique will be open for appointments April 17 through April 24. Appointments may be made by calling (248) 347.1309, beginning on April 12.

For more information regarding receiving or donating a dress through DonateMyDress.org, visit the Web site .
